

MARION COUNTY HEALTH DEPARTMENT
COMMUNITY-BASED CARE
IMMUNIZATION AND NURSE-OF-THE-DAY SCHEDULES

Immunization services are available on a walk-in basis during designated Nurse of the Day (NOD) hours and by appointments at regularly scheduled Immunization Clinics and during designated Nurse-of-the-Day (NOD) services hours. Other NOD services include tuberculosis skin tests and medication; blood pressure screening; counseling and referral for family planning, prenatal, infant, and child care; other communicable disease services and general health counseling and referral. It is requested that all clients be signed in 15 minutes before the closing time for the services. NO TB SKIN TESTS ARE GIVEN ON THURSDAYS or DURING IMMUNIZATION CLINICS ON WEDNESDAY'S AT NORTHWEST AND AT NORTHEAST. Walk-in Services are on a first-come, first-serve basis. There may be certain times during the year when the closing time will be shortened due to the volume of clients needing services.
